

Arlington Park To Start Races Monday

America's Finest
Turf Attracts Best
Horses, Rich Stakes

Arlington Park, America's finest race track will open its gates for a 30 day meeting next Monday.

The cream of the American turf will be on hand to compete for $400,000 in stakes and purses and the finest racing of the year is assured for Arlington's patrons.

With every outstanding horse in the country nominated for one or another of Arlington's rich stakes enough of those equine stars are sure to go to the post to make the Arlington meeting the greatest of the year in this country.

War Admiral, Sea Biscuit, Stagehand, Suark, Laurin, Dauber and hosts of other famous horses, have been entered in the rich Arlington stakes and if they should all be on hand to bill their engagements, it would be a meeting long to be remembered by the turf fans.

The huge Arlington Park plant is ready for the opening.

The big stands are cleaned and ready, the fields and lawns are mowed and are a glistening green, the rose hedges along the home stretch are bursting into bloom and the fine trees and shrubs in the paddock and around the stables have grown to a point where they make the big racing plant a scene of beauty.

General Manager Roy Carruthers announces that every one of Arlington's 1,300 stalls is spoken for and early this week he issued a warning to horsemen not to ship to Arlington Park unless they had a reservation.

The leading jockeys of the country will be on hand, gathered from the racing centers of this country and Canada, and during the meeting these jockeys will be seen in action on the prizes of the nation's greatest stables.

The first big race of the meeting will be the inaugural handicap on Monday and the nominations include the best sprinters in the country.

On July 4, the famous Stars and Stripes handicap will be the feature and from then on until the end of the meeting it will be just one stellar attraction after another.

Everything is in readiness for the big meeting, horses are arriving daily, the officials are on hand and the race patrons are just waiting for the big plant to open and all will thrill to the cry of "they're off" at 2:15 Monday afternoon, when America's greatest race meeting will be officially under way.

Race Track Shorts

The majority of the riders will come from Lincoln Fields which meeting closes next Saturday. The exodus of jockeys from Crete includes Al Robertson, Milky Way Farm's star, who now has more than 22 victories to his credit at that race session; Irving Anderson, winner of the devil red and blue silks of Warren Wright's Calumet Farm; James G. Wilson, the young Idaho flash, who recently took top riding honors at Aurora, one of the most promising prospects, under contract to the Iowan, Paul Kelley, and Bobby Dotter, Covington, Kentucky youth, always a favorite with Illinois turf fans.

Twenty-one apprentice riders will also pack their tack and ship it to the North Side course from Crete. Heading this list is Delpha Castille, 17-year old jockey from LaFayette Parish down in Louisiana, who made Louisville turf patrons sit up and take notice during the Spring Churchill Downs meeting.

Big Demand for Boxes

Leaders of mid-western society, business, political and sports fields stud the list of box holders for the 30-day racing meeting. The box holders list, including as it does members of the swank Post and Paddock Club and social notables from the east, is a veritable Who's Who of American turfdom and Chicago's upper set.

Unprecedented early reservations—both seasonal and for major stake days—is reported this year by Roy Carruthers, secretary and general manager of the Arlington Park Jockey Club. In fact, only a few boxes in the enclosure section and a number in the grandstand are available out of the total of 330. Boxes, of six seats each, cost $55 for the 30-days meeting.

Society's sports rendezvous during July, will be the exclusive Post and Paddock Club at Arlington Park, the "Ascot of the mid-west," which opens its 30-days meeting here on June 27.

More than 300 members of the mid-west and eastern social set wear the button of the Post and Paddock Club, led again this season by Laurence Hearne Armour, of Chicago, as president. Since its organization in 1929 the headquarters have been the attractive clubhouse situated at the western end of the stands at the northside course.

Post and Paddock members, who grace the lawns and terraces of the club during the annual Arlington race meet, also have a special block of boxes in the enclosure section. Dining facilities for the members and their guests are set forth in the attractive club dining room and on the terraces, the scene of gay luncheons throughout the meeting.

Publish Financial Statement

Arlington Heights
Audit Shows Books
In Good Shape

The village of Arlington Heights is publishing as its financial statement this year, a part of the annual report of the auditor, E. F. Laurin. Mr. Laurin, hired on a yearly basis, keeps a "fatherly eye" upon the books of the village throughout the year with the result that there are few remedial suggestions for him to bring to the attention of the village board.

The audit is brief, yet comprehensive and interested taxpayers can easily understand the excerpts that are published on page eight of this issue.

From the list expenses charged to the various departments, the novice can easily see where the tax dollar goes.

Total Bonds Low

With the prospective settlement of the public benefit problem as told in last week's Herald, the village finances are in an excellent condition. Total general bonds are only $24,500.00 while the revenue water works bonds are being automatically retired from pledged receipts of the water department. No taxes are levied for the latter purpose.

The balance sheet of the special assessment funds show a reduction of approximately $111,407.49. While the published report does not give the financial condition of the 104 special assessments, the auditor's report shows that very few of them are in the red so far as the principals are concerned.

Village Operates On Balanced Budget

The table of appropriations and actual expenditures give an excellent picture as to how near the village operates upon a balanced budget. There is only a difference of $665.50 between the two so far as operating expenses of the village is concerned. Due to the receipt of delinquent tax monies expenditures made to library and similar funds exceed the amount appropriated to them.

If and when all of the past due taxes are paid by the people who owe them, the village of Arlington Heights could afford to pass up one year's tax levy. There are outstanding in uncollected taxes, according to the auditor's report, the sum of $106,000.

Those who accept the services provided by the village probably give little thought as to how much in cash money those services actually cost. The total is nearly $70,000 for the past year. Current tax receipts were only $20,000. The balance came from sale of water permits, fees, fines, etc. That is no small amount and settlement is only accomplished by adherence to strict business methods.

Until the accident of two weeks ago, when a baby was killed by an autoist, Arlington Heights held a safety record probably due in part to the efficiency of the police department in the patrolling of the streets.

The fines assessed and turned over to the village by Judge Neuman and Judge Behrens during last year totaled $4,453.50, which went a long way towards paying the cost of the police department at the same time that it drove home to the autoists that Arlington Heights seeks protection for the pedestrian. The arrest slips of the individual officers, the records of the department and the police magistrate were all checked by the auditor and balanced to a penny, which means that there are no "knock-downs" in the Arlington police department.

The cost of operating the village of Arlington Heights and its kindred departments, is nearly $200 a day and its annual financial report should be read by every voter.

Scarsdale Seeks Protection From Unsightly Poles

A hearing was granted by the Council Monday evening to the Scarsdale Property Owners Association on the matter of the proposed telephone extensions in Scarsdale. Neal Graham, president of the association, displayed a survey of existing lines and easements, and stated that his group was prepared to show that adequate facilities had been provided in the way of easements to afford service to every section of the subdivision and that access to these easements might be had without the erection of poles on parkways.

"This is not a matter of engineering," Mr. Graham asserted. "It resolves itself into a matter of dollars and cents. Against contentions of the representatives of the telephone company that a somewhat greater expense would be incurred were all lines to be barred from parkways, we property owners are conscious of our own investments aggregating conservatively $2,000,000, and the certainty that these investments would be impaired by acts tending to detract from the favorable appearance of the properties."

It was decided that a meeting of all parties at interest should be called to attempt an amicable agreement, and Mayor Flentie announced that this would be held on Friday evening, June 23.

Old School Bldgs. To Be Sold June 28

New Structure To Be Completed On Schedule By August 10th

The two old elementary school buildings at Arlington Heights will be sold by the township board of school trustees next Tuesday night, if a bonafide bid is received. It is an open secret that there is a Chicago wrecking association that takes a cut on all contracts. The amount of that cut is deducted from the value of the job, which means that if the contract is given to a member of that association, the taxpayer of district 25, are the ones who in reality pay the "graff." The school board has an idea as to the value of that building and unless a bid within reason is received, it is almost certain that a re-advertising will follow.

There are a lot of good news this week for the patrons of the school. It appears that the contractor will have the building completed by August 10, which is the date specified in the building contract. Work will start soon on the laying of the floors.

The contract for the electrical fixtures was awarded recently to Solar Manufacturing Co. All of the rooms except the manual training, domestic science and basement play room will be indirectly lighted. The board has let all of the necessary contracts for the building.

Over 1,000 Descendants Of Pioneer

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrich Busse, who settled in Elk Grove in 1848 now number over 1,000 living persons. Of this number 764 are blood relations, while 287 are husbands and wives who have married into this family.

The ninetieth anniversary of the arrival of the family in Elk Grove, will be celebrated in the Elk Grove forest preserve Sunday, July 3. Fifteen years ago when a similar event was held there were 584 blood relations and 130 who married into the family. The increase in fifteen years has been 350, or nearly fifty per cent.

Dr. O. C. Kreinheder, president of Valparaiso university, is making a special trip from his home to Elk Grove, in order to attend and give an address. Other pastors who will speak are Rev. Gehrs, pastor of the home church of the Busse family, Rev. J. E. A. Mueller of Mt. Prospect and Rev. Zersen, of Itasca, who will give grandchilden by marriage to the pioneers. The early settlers had six children, all of whom have died. There are living today 24 grandchildren, some of whom have distinct memories of the pioneer couple who head the Busse family in America. The great grandchildren number 203, the great great grandchildren 429 and the sixth generation numbers 104.

Celebrations At Arlington and Buffalo Grove

Residents of northern Cook county will not have to look far for a place to celebrate July 4th, with two celebrations in this vicinity. The Arlington Heights fire department will hold a dance at Arlington ballroom with music by Mel Borchardt. A $50 electric roaster will be given away.

St. Mary's church at Buffalo Grove will hold its annual homecoming July 3 and 4 upon the church grounds. The usual chicken dinner will be served Sunday afternoon.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church, is having the first of a series of "open air" meetings. The first of these will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Brown at 402 S. Pine avenue (in Scarsdale), and they will act as hosts to the group. A very interesting meeting is planned with instrumental music and plenty of singing. Mr. Carl M. Teutsch is the leader. The group will meet at the church at 6:20 p. m. and then go to Brown's home.

Civic Assn. Plan Many Activities

To Be a Busy Year For Business Organization

The meeting of the newly elected Board of Directors of the Arlington Heights Trade and Civic Association was held last Thursday night, June 16, and in accordance with the revised constitution of the Association adopted at the last meeting of the membership June 9, the following officers for the Association were elected: President, H. F. Muller; vice president, M. R. Warson; treasurer, W. Krause, Jr.; recording secretary, W. C. Hartmann; executive secretary, N. M. Latoff. These men are all well-known business men of Arlington Heights and have the ability and have promised to give the time to their respective jobs in the work of the organization.

The following six well-known business men in addition to these officers are members of the Board of Directors: Dr. E. W. Baumann, C. L. Griffith, G. F. Schneberger, T. F. Studtmann, H. J. Thal and E. J. Winkelman, making a total of eleven members, all of which were present at the meeting with the exception of Mr. Studtmann and Mr. Winkelman, who were unable to attend on account of previous engagements. Much enthusiasm was manifested for the future of the Association and every one agreed to do his part in making it a success.

A tentative program for the ensuing year was discussed and these will be another meeting of the Board of Directors this Thursday night, June 23, at which time a definite program will be adopted with its prime object to benefit the business and professional men and women of Arlington Heights and the town of Arlington Heights, as well. Just a few of the things discussed and favorably mentioned were:

A monthly news sheet for circulation to the entire membership of the Association which would keep them posted on the activities of the Board of Directors and of the various committees and would carry information of meetings and other items of general interest. A pamphlet containing information that would be helpful to new families moving into Arlington Heights that would be presented to the new-comer with a letter of welcome from the Association.

Special community activities for certain holidays such as the 4th of July, Christmas, etc.

Other activities that would enable the business and professional people of Arlington Heights to get together in a social way, become better acquainted with each other in order to foster a spirit of cooperation among the members to their mutual advantage; and other matters that will be discussed and acted upon in due time.

It is also tentatively decided to hold a meeting of the entire membership the second Thursday in July, and all members and prospective members will receive notices of this meeting several days in advance, at which time the program of the Association will be explained in detail and discussed by the members.

So you business and professional men and women of Arlington Heights keep your eyes open for the first news sheet of the Association, which you should receive within the next week or two, and plan on attending the first meeting of the membership some time during the second week in July to learn just what the plans and program of the Association will be for the coming year.

Special Price For Students At Dyche Stadium Track Meet

This Saturday, June 25, is the date of the track meet at Dyche Stadium, Northwestern University, Evanston, between the stars of the Pacific coast Universities and the best in the Big Ten. In accordance with the announcement made at the high school by Mr. Grose any student desirous of seeing the meet may get in for 25c admission. This includes both the high school and grades.

Those planning on going are urged to meet at the high school at 12:45 sharp, this Saturday. The various groups will have to furnish most of the transportation and each will have to pay his own admission. There probably will be plenty of cars available, so all who are interested, should plan on being there.

Mors Bakery To Celebrate Anniversary

Grand Opening
Will Be Saturday;
Special Prices

Ed. Mors, proprietor of the Mors Bakery, North Dunton street, will "unveil" his new shop Saturday morning when the barricades will be removed in time for the grand opening of the new store and the celebration of the sixtieth anniversary of that place of business in Arlington Heights. Mors bakery goods have long had a reputation for quality and selection and their popularity is certain to increase with the new equipment that has been installed.

A special innovation is a complete refrigeration plant for the production of high grade whipped cream cakes in which the store will specialize. All creamed goods, eclairs, etc., will be kept under refrigeration until they are sold to the customer direct from the refrigeration cases. To introduce the service, special prices on such goods will be in effect on the opening day.

Free souvenirs will be presented to all customers making nominal purchases that day. Mr. Mors is keeping the appearance of that store a surprise, from even the editor, but yet reporter peaked thru a knot hole and what he saw. It is the last thing in modernization and will be a big addition to the appearance of the business district.

As modern as will be the new Mors Bakery, it dates back to the old days when there were only four or five houses in the present village.

Mr. Peter Mors, father of Ed. Mors, learned the trade of a baker in Germany and was employed at New York City when he first came to this country. It was in 1878 that he purchased the shop from Mr. Schultz and he spent the remainder of his days directing the baking of good bakery goods for the people of Arlington Heights. He passed away in 1917.

His son, Ed. Mors, came by the bakery trade naturally, but he is keeping pace with modern times and is always on the alert to provide new bakery confections for his customers. The variety of the goods on display in that store compares favorably with the exclusive Chicago shops operated by the largest bakeries.

Lions Clubs Plan Big Picnic

At the regular meeting of the Arlington Heights Lions Club on Tuesday evening, steps were taken leading to the holding of a big joint picnic by the Lions Clubs of Barrington, Arlington Heights, Palatine, Mt. Prospect and Des Plaines.

Deputy District Governor Schreiber of Barrington outlined the plans for such a gathering and asked for the opinions of the representatives of other clubs who were present.

The plan met with the approval of the home club and the representatives of other clubs present who will take the subject up at the next meeting of their clubs.

It is planned to hold the picnic at Long Lake at Delavan, Wis., some time in the early part of August.

The affair would be a big get-together of the Lions of this territory and would afford the boys and their families a fine chance to become better acquainted with one another, enjoy all the pleasures of a fine day in the country and in general have a big time. Each club will appoint a committee and these committees will comprise the picnic committee and will make the plans for the big day.

It was election night for the Arlington Lions and only one contest developed for the tail twister job, and that was a most friendly affair.

The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows: President, Hugo J. Thal; first vice president, Henry Miller; second vice president, Harry Knaack; third vice president, Walter Karstens; fourth vice president, Roscoe Reed; secretary-treasurer, Carl Ewert; and tail twister, A. M. Conger; lion tamer, Dr. Dunn. Directors, Lions Jasper, Schimming and E. Malzahn.

Quorum Failure Holds Up Adoption Of Building Code

Arlington Heights needs a new building code. The job was given and supposedly accepted by a group of public spirited citizens. We understand that the code is completed but failure to have a quorum at meetings of that body has delayed action. These men have done a good job, but it means nothing unless they attend the next meeting.

Lake-Cook Back In Old Location

Salesroom Returns To S. Vail; Headquarters To Des Plaines

The Arlington Heights salesroom and warehouse of the Lake-Cook Farm Supply returns this week to the Hagenbren building at 6 So. Vail in quarters formerly occupied jointly by the farm bureau and the supply company.

Building alterations have been made which provide adequate space for the display of products and storage of goods. The company has been occupying the freight house of the North Western railroad, but has cancelled their lease. At the new location they will have double the facilities that they used during their former occupancy of that place.

"Better service to our customers is the motive behind the removal from the freight house," says C. F. Iverson, assistant manager. "A new station was opened at Des Plaines the past year, which serves some of the former Arlington Heights customers, yet the local office is holding its own in volume and amount of sales, while the company reports a nice increase in business over a year ago."

Mr. C. F. Iverson, will maintain headquarters at the Arlington Heights office, which is centrally located for the territory that he covers.

Main Office Moves To Des Plaines

As was predicted a year ago, the Cook county business of the company has grown to such an extent that the company is moving on July 1, its main office from Grayslake in the northern part of its territory, to Des Plaines, which is near the central point of Cook and Lake counties. Des Plaines is located on through highways and it is possible to reach any of the local offices within an hour. Those offices are located at Grayslake, Lake Zurich, Arlington Heights, and Tinley Park. The company may open offices at Schaumburg and Blue Island next fall.

Lost Battalion

Is 'Best Seller' In Arlington Heights

The committee from the Veterans of Foreign Wars Arlington Post No. 981, headed by Commander Ardon Wilcox, reports that the sale of that famous book, the Lost Battalion, written by Buck Private McCollum, is going forward successfully.

The reader will no doubt recall the article which appeared in the issue of June 17, the announcement of this sale to raise a service fund for the veterans of the post and the Ladies' Auxiliary in Arlington Heights.

Everyone who has not as yet been called, will be given an opportunity either by phone or in person, to obtain a copy of this fine book.

The post has selected the Lost Battalion as its twentieth anniversary of the World War souvenir.

Barrett Agricultural Service Moves To Wetterman Building

The Barrett Agricultural Service, which formerly occupied offices in the Hagenbren building, 6 So. Vail, has moved to the former Wetterman garage building on South Evergreen street, south of the Gieske store.

Mr. Barrett is representing an increasing number of Chicago farm owners and the farm management and buying service, which he is conducting extends over a large territory, extending to adjoining counties. Mr. Barrett is keeping his central office in Arlington for the present.

Business Men To Meet Tonight With Organization Heads

Arlington Heights village board at its meeting Monday evening, spent an hour listening to suggested plans for the modernization of the appearance of the village to outsiders.

Mr. Tackett, who is doing so much in Scarsdale first broached the subject. The aldermen felt his enthusiasm and brought out other suggestions. There was set in motion a "clean-up fix-up" campaign that its sponsors say have sufficient enthusiasm and man power to do great things in Arlington.

It was unanimously agreed that the job of directing the movement should fall upon the Arlington Heights Trade and Civic Association. All civic organizations within the village will be represented at a dinner meeting to be held this Thursday evening when the plans will be fully explained to them, and their cooperation will be asked.

Although the movement has not yet been officially started, assurances of funds have been received. There are visions of a rejuvenated depot and the removal of the 60 year old freight depot from the center of the business district. Offers of free service from architects and engineers have been received. A number of outside firms who have been benefited by the building activity within the village will be asked to make substantial contributions. With the exception of a few old time buildings, the business district of Arlington Heights is outstanding, and it is around that district that the first steps will be taken to give it a citified appearance.

The rejuvenating job is one that requires more than just enthusiasm. It will cost some money and the committee has plans to so popularize the plan that practically every family within the village will have a part in its accomplishment.

If those in attendance at the Thursday night meeting give the general plan its approval next week's issue of the Herald will carry some startling news that will shock those who are inclined to "let George do it." While other villages and communities are crying over lack of building activity, Arlington Heights, quoting Mr. Latoff, the new president of the trade and civic association, is ready to go places.

The Trade and Civic association is not waiting for any job to be thrust upon them, but has already made plans for the decorating of the business district for Independence day. There is to be no celebration held by the association July 4th and the only local activity will be the picnic of the Fire Department. However, the board of directors of that association feel that the nation's birthday is worth recognizing and Arlington Heights is important enough to do it right without any profit-making string tied to it. The entire business district will be decorated.

The village board has already taken a step in the same direction by the installation of a public drinking fountain on Dunton street, south of the railroad. It is a new design and attractive.

Now Is The Time To

See The Doctor, You 2 To 5 Year Olds

Two to five year olds will now be able to get that "all-around check up," that the measles postponed last March, at the village hall Friday morning from nine to eleven o'clock.

Miss Jackson has made all arrangements to take care of the little tots and see that tonsils, teeth, and everything else about them is up to par.

The community nurse is prepared to help the mothers arrange a proper diet for their youngsters. Even if your child is slightly over five if he or she is under the summer round-ups for children of school age, he is welcome to come for examination.

Taxing Bodies Assure

Salary of Miss Jackson

They want Miss Jackson and they are going to keep her.

With this in mind the various taxing bodies of Arlington Heights put their heads together and did the best they could. The grade school, high school and township is raising $1,000. The village is going the rest of the way to see that Miss Jackson can, herself, live up to the health rules and get her "three squares" a day.

The taxing bodies have agreed to pay the following amounts: Township, $300; high school, $300; grade school, $400; the village will raise $400 or $500 dollars in addition to the tax levied for that purpose, making the total $1,800 to be turned over to the Chicago Tuberculosis Institute which employs the community nurse.

Mayor Flentie will appoint an advisory committee to work with the present Board of Health. Beside cooperating with the board it will raise enough funds to furnish the nursing service with adequate supplies.

Arlington Society and Club Event

Vacation Plans Are In The Air

School bells will be silent for the next two months, and children are free to enjoy the summer as only children know how. Parents are also busy making plans for their vacation from the routine of every day work, road maps are being studied, with one eye on the mileage and gas tank, and one eye longingly cast on the various scenic parts of our country. Husbands are carefully taking stock of their fishing tackle, and golf clubs, and now that it has stopped raining, vacation plans are in the air. This planning is as it should be for the best part of a vacation is spent in anticipation and reflection.

The long motor trip has no flat tires or detours in anticipation. Mosquitoes have no place in a dream of a fisherman's paradise, and in reflection the coveted catch takes on much larger proportions, and what joy it is to dream of "That one that got away." What a thrill it is to get away for a few weeks, and just the same thrill to get back to our own backyards, to say nothing of our own comfortable beds. Yes, vacations are upon us and a few that are already enjoying them are:

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Rector, who are on a fishing trip in the Chain O Lake Region of Northern Wisconsin. Mr. Rector, when interviewed, was well prepared with every encouragement for the "Big Fellows" to bite on.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Palmer leave Sunday for a month's stay in their summer home at Long Lake, Wisconsin.

The Paul Wood family are established in a cottage at Lake Delavan for the duration of the racing season, with their home occupied during the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren and Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Williams are turning farmers for the month of July, while their homes are occupied by race track folks.

George Harper who attended school here this year, living at the home of his aunt, Mrs. James McElhose, has joined his parents in Shelbyville for the summer. They will be in various places. Mrs. Donald Thal of San Francisco, Calif., is visiting relatives and friends in Arlington Heights for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Brynaldson, of Texas, are arriving in town this week to spend their vacation with the Lama family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meyer, Donald and Juanita, motored to Fort Wayne, Indiana to visit with relatives a week ago.

Mrs. Thomas Cooper and family are leaving Sunday for Sunnyside, Washington State, to spend several weeks visiting relatives in Sunnyside and Seattle. Mr. Cooper will join them later in July for his vacation and they will visit in Montana on the return trip.

Farewell Reception For Rev. Loughlin

A large number of members and friends of the Methodist church met last Friday evening in the Recreation hall of the church to bid farewell to their minister and his family. A short program was enjoyed, consisting of a reading by Barbara Barrett, a guitar solo by James Jirak, and a vocal solo by Margaret Allison. After the program a social time was enjoyed. Rev. Loughlin leaves this week to take up his new duties, but will return here to preach on Sundays until a new minister has been appointed.

A gift was presented to the Loughlins with best wishes for his new position, and with deepest regret that he must leave this charge.

June Birthdays Celebrated By The Schwartz Families

Busse of Chicago, Mrs. Lawrence Schwartz, Mrs. C. C. Schwartz and Mrs. Paul Taage. The evening was enjoyed playing cards and in dancing.

Birthday Party

Charles Noble Emmett celebrated his 6th birthday with a merry company of 30 of his friends and kindergarten classmates last Friday afternoon at his home on So. Walnut avenue. Mrs. Daniels, the kindergarten teacher, planned many happy games for the children and the party was complete with just the right kind of birthday goodies, served by his mother. Mrs. M. Hand and Donald and Patsy, came out from Chicago to make the party complete.

It Happened Here

Last night when I was snug in bed I heard the winds war overhead; I saw their wicked sabers flash With zig-zag stroke and slash And heard the thunder of their hoofs.

On all the gabled roofs While on the window like a flail Their musketry poured shot and hail.

Thorau says: "Grass is as universal as dew, as commonplace as light." June is the time of grass, for dew, for light filtered thru leafy branches, but for nothing commonplace, indeed, there is no commonplace object, only commonplace observers, to paraphrase a certain writer, and naturally, Thorau's attention is to ask us to pause and take a second look at the gifts we take so much for granted; is there anything lovelier than dew on a grass blade, or raindrops clinging to the ruby fruit strung on the cherry trees, or the beaded cobwebs on the lawn? After the desert and the dust storms, what so healing and blessed as our green groves and rolling prairies? Prairie grass! The wind billows it and silvers it—children love it and stand among the green billows, their fists full of plucked grasses and their hair blown like dandelion fluff. "The grass so little has to do, I wish I were the hay!" says Emily Dickinson. The trees from the attic outlook are crowded together in "one green thought," parting the underbrush to let one of their number shaped like a lyric, step forward at the edge of a greensward, just large enough for Mab and her fairies to form their ring. . . . Where is the poet of our native skies? This sky above the ferny leafed locust, so deeply blue where clouds pass in leisurely procession, is no tropical, no alien sky—it is our own blue pave, highway of these cloud shapes, the covered wagons of the prairie.

Heidorns upset Rose-Lo

Heidorns handed Rose-Lo its first defeat of the season by a 3 to 2 count. The game was a pitcher's duel between Doug Milligan and Art Luerssen. Doug won the duel because his defense held up better than Rose-Lo's. Art struck out ten men in seven innings. Earl Fredricks scored the winning run on a two base hit and an outfield error. Rose-Lo Trounces Evergreen

In a loosely played game Rose-Lo overcame Evergreen 13 to 5. About all that can be said about the game is that Evergreen did everything wrong and Rose-Lo just coasted to victory. Glenn Granin couldn't do much with 11 errors committed in back of him. Rose-Lo Beats Gaeres

That long awaited game between Rose Lo and Gaeres came off Sunday evening and Rose Lo came off the winner by a 4 to 0 margin. It was all Rose Lo Sunday with their infield and outfield functioning perfectly they made the victory look very simple. Gaere's infield fell apart in the early innings and made 6 errors.

Art Luerssen's pitching and Red Weisgerber's hitting featured Rose Lo's play. Red poled out a home run and a single. Art pitched beautiful ball, striking out seven men and allowing only two hits. Only five balls were hit out of the infield in the whole game off Art. Sunny Lemke made a great catch of Weisgerber's long drive in the fifth inning to rob Red of his third straight hit. Lefty Sword pitched good relief ball for Gaeres.

What—Again?

For the second time within a week, Heidorns defeated Rose-Lo. The score of the game was 8 to 6. Rose Lo was leading 4 to 0, going into the fourth when Heidorns mixed walks, errors, and hits to score 7 runs in the 4th and 5th innings. With the bases loaded and two outs in the fifth, Art Luerssen came in and was greeted with three straight hits. It was Art's first loss of the season. Up until that fatal fifth there hadn't been an earned score off of Luerssen in 21 innings. In those 21 innings Art had struck out 26 batters.

The stars of the game were Gary Milligan and Eddie Allen. George got 3 hits and Eddie 2. Doug Milligan pitched another good game against Rose-Lo. That makes 2 earned runs. Rose Lo has garnered off Doug in 14 innings. Red Kocling obtained 2 hits in between strike outs.

Jeanette MacDonald At Art Theatre June 26-27

Jeanette MacDonald is planning a concert tour.

For years concert bureaus in cities all over the country have been pleading with the singing star to make such a tour. This, together with the fan mail pleading the same, has convinced Miss MacDonald that she will make a tour to cover an entire season next year.

Up to now Miss MacDonald's contract did not provide for any tours. Her present contract provides that upon completion of "The Girl of the Golden West," in which she currently co-stars with Nelson Eddy, she wins a twelve-week vacation before starting her next picture, "Sweethearts." After one other picture she will have permission for a tour.

Her recent radio broadcasts have provided Miss MacDonald with an opportunity to sing before audiences in preparation for her concert tour next year.

"The Girl of the Golden West" co-stars Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy for the fourth time. Others in the exceptionally fine cast are Walter Pidgeon, Leo Carrillo, Buddy Ebsen, Leonard Penn and Priscilla Lawson.

School Board Sets Up Rules and Regulations For Playground Use

The Board of Education, School District No. 25, Arlington Heights, decided at its regular monthly meeting last Monday night that it would be to the best interest of all to regulate the use of the school playgrounds for baseball games.

The following rules and regulations were set up and organized groups desiring to use the ball diamonds at either the north or south schools are asked to comply with them.

1. Application in writing, stating the name or affiliation of the group, must be made to Mr. Chas. Hardke, chairman of the Building and Grounds committee. The request should specify the time, or times, desired and should be signed by the responsible head of the group.

2. The group should be organized and should be permitted to play on lawns or parkways and in all cases shall not be permitted to play on the playgrounds.

3. Grounds shall be cleaned up and left in the same condition as found.

The school board is glad to make the playgrounds available for such baseball games and hopes that these few simple rules will be observed.

Wedding Parties Celebrate At Young Democratic Dance

The dance held at Rand Tower Saturday evening by the Wheeling township young democrats drew a large crowd and turned into a wedding celebration for two bridal parties. The wedding supper of the Hildebrandt's nuptials, Des Plaines, was served at the tower and the Meyer-Eickelman wedding party came from Bensenville. The two groups helped to make it a festive occasion.

The members of the club have asked the Herald to say "thank you" to all those who cooperated in making the dance such a great success.

Phoebe Meyer Is Bride Of Arthur Eichmann

Miss Phoebe Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meyer, of Arlington Heights, was the bride of Arthur Eichmann, son of Louis Eichmann, of Bensenville, in a wedding ceremony held at the church, Bensenville, at 5 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, June 18. The wedding rites were read by Rev. Ringe.

It was a quiet wedding with only the immediate relatives and friends, numbering less than twenty-five. Among them, however, was Grandfather Herman Scharringhausen who esteemed it a special honor to be present.

The bride was attired in beige with hat to match and carried white roses. She was attended by Lillian Eichmann, sister of the groom and Rose Schannan, of Chicago, who wore afternoon gowns. They had corsages of tea roses.

Cecil Meyer, brother of the bride, acted as best man, while Wilbur Eichmann was the other attendant.

Following the ceremony and a trip to the photographers, a wedding dinner was served at the Yellow Cottage on Irving Park boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. Eichmann are residing in the home they have purchased at 133 West Green Street, Bensenville.

Mrs. Eichmann, who has been employed as an operator at the Arlington telephone exchange the past ten years, was recently transferred to Bensenville, where a new phone system is being placed in operation. She leaves many friends in Arlington Heights, but that bride and groom are only ten miles distant, and is adorned with a great array of beautiful gifts evidence of the esteem and regard in which Mrs. Eichmann is held by her friends.

Business Romance Culminates In Marriage And Home For Two

Miss Verna Heap, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Heap was a clerk at the Collignon delicatessen store in Arlington Heights. Milk was delivered daily to the store by the Meiers Dairy of Crystal Lake.

It fell upon Erich Meiers, son of the dairy owner, to make the delivery. Cupid was also in the picture somewhere, hid between the milk bottles, but he got in his good work, and a romance swiftly developed which culminated Wednesday, June 15, in a marriage ceremony at the Arlington Heights Presbyterian church when Rev. Kossack said the words that united these two young people.

Mrs. Prieto presided at the organ and Mrs. Annabelle Tesch sang "Oh Promise Me," "Because," and "I Love You Truly."

The bride was attired in white lace with short veil and carried a bouquet of white roses, larkspur and sweet peas. She was attended by Esther Meiers of Crystal Lake and Lorraine Malachuk of Palatine, who were attired in yellow net and carried white larkspur.

The groom was attended by Wm. Roemer as best man and Frank Buhrow.

Following the ceremony the guests, numbering sixty, partook of a wedding dinner served in the church parlors by the ladies' aid society. The color scheme was yellow and white.

Mr. and Mrs. Meiers left by auto on a wedding trip in the west, expecting to return in two weeks when they will be at home in their residence at Crystal Lake. Mr. Meiers is taking over active charge of the dairy.

Mrs. Meiers graduated from the Arlington high school in 1934. She has always been popular with the young people and her pleasing manner at the Collignon store, made friends of her acquaintances who all wish her the best of luck in her new home.

Senate Kills The School Board Bill

The Horner backed state school board bill came to an inglorious finish last week when the state senate killed the bill by an overwhelming vote.

The senators rose up and just said what they thought about that school board bill and despite all the protestations of the Governor that the bill didn't mean what the senators thought it did the boys just wouldn't have anything to do with it.

One senator summed up the whole situation in closing a speech against the bill by saying "And the folks back home just don't like the bill."

And that about tells the whole story, "the folks back home" didn't like that state school board bill and they told their representatives in Springfield that they didn't like it and that ended the political grab of Illinois schools.

Farm Bureau Teams Meet For Third Game Here Saturday

The least said about the two previous ball games between the north and south end teams of the Cook County Farm Bureau, the better Herbert Moehling would like it, but he asks the Herald to invite the world to come to Arlington Recreation park at three o'clock this Saturday when the North Ends will get revenge for treatment accorded them by the South Ends the last two weeks.

The attendance at the dance given by the boys last Thursday, has encouraged them so much that they are going to show their appreciation by winning Saturday's game. There were over 400 couples at the dance at Arlington ballroom.

Red Wings Win Over Mayfair

The Red Wings broke the charm which Bill Lips, the Mayfair pitcher, held over them and drove him to the showers in three innings, Sunday. The last time Lips pitched against the locals, they had to go seven innings before they finally made a hit off of him, but Sunday was another day.

The Red Wings started with three runs in the first inning, three in the second and a lone tally in the third. In the first inning, Wahl walked and Frank Brodnan, trying to sacrifice, hit a pop foul which the catcher caught. Then Pedersen hit a line single to center, Wahl going to third, Willert was safe on an error by the second baseman, Wahl scoring. Firnbach hit one to left center good for three bases, Pedersen and Willert scoring.

In the second inning, Meyer walked, Wahl walked, F. Brodnan doubled, scoring Meyer and Wahl. Pedersen walked, Willert fanned and Schaefer fied to right. Firnbach got his second straight hit when his sharp ground ball hopped over the shortstop's head. F. Brodnan scoring and Pedersen went to third. Pedersen tried to score on a passed ball, but was thrown out at the plate by the catcher who retrieved the ball to the pitcher who covered home plate. In the third three walks, an error and a fielder's choice scored the other run for the Red Wings.

The Mayfair Merchants picked up a run in the third on two hits, a walk and a passed ball, and one run in the fourth on two singles and a fielder's choice, and they had to be satisfied with those two runs until the eighth inning when they threw a scare into the Red Wings by scoring four runs on four hits and an error. It looked like they were going to tie up the ball game, but Schaefer got the next man to retire the side. In the ninth for Mayfair, the first man up got on by an error, but the next three men went down in order, two of them striking out.

On Friday night, June 24, the Red Wings go to Glenview to play a night game under the newly installed electric lights. This is the opening night game at Glenview and the management has prepared an elaborate program. Several major league stars will be there along with the Evanston Drum & Bugle Corps. Program starts at 8 p. m., so plan to be there and cheer the Red Wings to victory. On Sunday, June 26, a strong team from Kenosha, Wis., will be here. This team has been taking everything in their league, so we look for a tough game from them. Game called at 3 p. m. Let's have a big crowd.

Board Opens Bids For Pavement

Milburn Brothers Get Contract For Paving Cry. Package Road

Milburn Brothers, contractors, were awarded the contract as lowest bidder for paving an entrance to Creamery Package at the village board meeting Monday evening. The contract is subject to the approval of the state highway department which is expected within a few days.

Five sealed bids were opened from Bates Construction Co., $12,658.95, States Improvement Co., $12,883.45, Thomas McQueen, $13,010.74, Peter J. Crowley, $12,774.55, and Milburn Brothers, $12,203.15.

At the village meeting, the clerk was authorized to write the Cook Pump company for an engineer to investigate the north side village pump.

Asks New Building Code
The village board turned deaf ears to the plea of a prospective builder and the recommendation of the building commissioner that authorization be given for the acceptance of building plans that were not in accordance to the present building code.

The board took the stand that a planning and zoning committee were considering a revised building code and the village could not with courtesy, change present building code without the recommendation of that committee in whose hands building restrictions of the future now rest.

Reported Disconnection Case
Attorney Hugo J. Thal announced that Mr. Lump, owner of a tract of land facing 666 feet on East Euclid and extending north one half mile, was starting proceedings to have said property disconnected from the village. A compromise agreement was discussed, but no action was taken.

The village recently lost in the Illinois Supreme Court, the case of Greene vs. Arlington Heights. Although public improvements are within part of the Greene tract, in the northwestern part of the village, the tract was officially disconnected from the village. Payment of special assessments against the property have been made in full.

Police fines for the past two weeks amounted to $451. The police committee reported that they are starting on a drive for vehicle tags.

Presentation of Purple Heart Medals To Two V. F. W. Members

On the evening of June 16, of last Thursday, two members of Arlington Post No. 981, Veterans of Foreign Wars, were presented with the Purple Heart medal, at Buffalo Grove, Illinois, in Fimbach's hall. These two men were Henry Fimbach of Buffalo Grove and Henry Hinneberg of 838 North State road, Arlington Heights, and the ceremonies were held in the presence of about 300 persons.

The Purple Heart Medal is only awarded to those that were wounded during actual combat during the World War.

The prominent feature during the ceremony was that Comrade Herman Niemeyer was given the honor of presenting Comrade Henry Fimbach with his medal, as the two boys served in the same company together, and fortunately that Herman Niemeyer should find Henry Fimbach after he had been wounded by shrapnel during actual combat.

The same applied to Herman Schwolew of Arlington Heights who presented the medal to Henry Hinneberg who likewise was wounded during actual combat.

As a result, the true spirit of comradeship remains with the above comrades to their dying day.

Prior to the presentation, Senior Vice Commander W. Grace of the Department of Illinois of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, gave an inspiring talk to the audience, "Keep America Out of War" and how to be true to the United States and the flag.

Then followed the three Clark brothers with their magic methods of hiding cards, coins and whatever possible.

Dancing followed the ceremonies to the music of Stippick and his Serenaders and everyone enjoyed themselves except those that did not attend.

I wish to thank the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 981 and comrades for presenting me with the token of honor, "The Purple Heart," which I highly appreciate.

Gratefully,
Henry Hinneberg.

They Can Breathe Easy

The Enterprise "man on the street," reporter whose articles about traffic violations, fines, tickets "adjustments," etc., have caused considerable of a commotion the past few weeks has been assigned to the Arlington Park race meet by a large news service.

Formerly a baseball umpire and football referee our reporter has always "called 'em as he saw 'em," whether it was in baseball, politics or racing.

Now that he has been taken out of circulation for a while the boys who have worried about where he was going to break out next, can breathe easy for awhile.

That is, unless he prowls around nights and uncovers a good story now and then.

Park Benches Badly Damaged By 'Drunk'

Arlington Park board does not confine its activities to recreation park and took a lot of pride in providing an adequate number of benches in the railroad parks during the racing season. Imagine the disgust of its members when they learned Sunday that a local citizen, while under the influence of liquor, had broken eight of the cement benches by tipping them over. The "drunk" was returning home from a neighboring tavern. He spent 24 hours in the hoosegow, wishing for a relative to come and pay the $50 damages.

He and his companion have been in previous trouble with the police. Other acts of vandalism appear from time to time in Arlington Heights. The police stand ready to make an example of any who are caught disfiguring or destroying public or personal property.

TROOP 7 GETS A RATING AT CAMPOREE KAY SEBERT

The annual spring Camporee was held at Lions Park, Des Plaines, last Saturday. Troops from Barrington, Palatine, Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, Des Plaines and Park Ridge, competed for the honors. Points were awarded for campcraft, organization, food, campfire stunt, and afternoon events. At the end, the patrol with 800 to 1000 points rated A, 600 to 800, B, and 400 to 600, C. Troop 7 had 889. No C banners were given, as all troops rated A or B.

Most troops arrived at the grounds Friday afternoon or evening, while a few waited until Saturday morning. Camp inspections were held in the morning. The four afternoon events, knot-tying, relay, string-burning, pup-tent pitching, and first aid relay, quite filled the afternoon. Supper, retreat, when awards were announced, and a campfire concluded a good day. Some left in the evening and some stayed over Saturday night. Everyone had a good time in perfect weather.

The next Council affair will be the Girl-cash pow-wow when Troop 7 will defend the trophy.

NEWS OF SPRINGFIELD

Some of the Illinois state police who were on hand at all of the sessions of the general assembly to keep the relief agitators under control could have been used in the municipalities committee on Wednesday when the second hearing on the city manager bills was held.

In the first place many of the committee members were not able to secure seats; in fact some were unable to get inside the door of the committee room. There was a great deal of confusion over the place of meeting and several changes in location and time were made without formal notice to the members.

This was the hearing for the opponents and they were there in goodly numbers but all represented the Illinois and Chicago Federation of Labor. The first speaker and the most violent in opposition to the bills was the president of the Illinois Federation, R. C. Soderstrom, who said that it was undemocratic to appoint a city manager, that he should be elected and that moreover he did not like the term "manager" for a city; that it was an industrial term and represented efficiency.

He said that "the will of the people is a principle in the democratic form of government and the election system is the most democratic form." When asked if he did not believe that the people should have the right to vote as to whether they desired city manager government as the bills provided for a referendum Mr. Soderstrom said "If you want to argue that the people have the right to be wrong, the answer is yes."

Nearly a Riot
After three hours of speeches by the opposition, the meeting practically ended in a riot over a motion to adjourn without taking a vote on the motion to report the bills out of the committee with recommendations for passage. The majority of the committee decided to have a hearing on Friday in Chicago. The bills, however, are practically dead for this session.

The relief problem for which the session was primarily called has reached a deadlock. All bills to provide new taxes have been killed either in committee or on the floor. The administration, which must take the leadership in proposing new methods of administering relief, has assumed no responsibility and has ruled that no further state funds can be appropriated in this session because of the limitations of the governor's call. If a new session is to be called to run currently with the first special session it means an expense item of $10,200 alone, for the only remuneration to the members for special sessions. This is a $50 a member appropriation for postage and stationery. This amount could have been saved as well as other expenses attached to a special session if the governor had permitted the general assembly to consider the requirements of the relief administration and the state finances and then made a decision as to the amount necessary to appropriate.

School Board Bill
The controversial state school board bill known as senate bill No. 6 suffered the ignominious defeat of having its enacting clause struck by amendment. Predictions at the time the bill was introduced gave it seven votes out of the necessary thirty-four in the Senate. It managed, however, to pick up 10 votes. This leaves the O'Neill-Van der Vries state board bill House bill No. 41 the only bill on that subject on the docket and that bill is still in the education committee of the house. Its sponsors have arranged for a committee hearing on Tuesday. House bill No. 41 has been gathering support since its introduction.

Drafted by the Illinois Education association and the Illinois State School Board association it received endorsement this week by the endorsement of two of the advisory experts to the 1935 educational commission. Dr. William C. Reavis of the University of Chicago wired the sponsors that "House Bill No. 41 is in harmony with the recommendation of the advisory committee to the educational commission. It provides an agency to study continuously the educational needs of the state and to report its findings to the governor and the general assembly. Without such findings constructive legislation is scarcely probable. I favor the bill in its present form and believe that its enactment into law would in the course of time contribute to the improvement of education in the state without infringing on the rights of anyone."
